Introduction to the EAIE

EAE

European Association for International Education (EAIE)

Founded in 1989, we are a non-profit, member organisation driven in our commitment to international higher education.

- Serving the international higher education community
- Shaping developments in the field
- Ensuring a higher education that is equitable, ethical, socially responsible, accessible and accountable
- Based in Amsterdam, the Netherlands

EAIE Strategy 2026: a plan for an equitable future

The EAIE '2026' Strategy is shaped by our vision

'an equitable world in which international education connects diverse perspectives and fosters greater understanding. We believe that international education has the power to create a better world'

We are building an ecosystem where fresh ideas and best practices can flourish and shape the field of internationalisation.

THE EAIE WILL

- Enable the sector
Be the premier platform enabling the international education sector to flourish and evolve
- Influence and engage
Communicate the power and potential of international education to serve society
- Demonstrate impact
Drive responsible and impactful international education

International admissions for 2022-2023: what lies ahead?

Admissions, Policy & Strategy

By EAIE

With one crisis nearly over and another just beginning, the story of international admissions in Europe in the 2022–2023 academic year is a complex one.
