Pros and Cons of EMQAL or what do I get at the end?

Pros:

- Familiarization with European regulatory system;
- Precious international experience;
- Opening your mind and changing your perception of the world;
- New and fresh ideas on how to apply your knowledge in your country;
- New languages;
- New skills;
- Travelling all around ☺

Pros:

Cons:

- New challenges sometimes you aren't ready for;
- The heaviness and seriousness of responsibility to choose your path;
- Your career depends on your efforts and your fortune only;
- Education systems in Spain and Portugal aren't better than our one;
- Life and people aren't perfect so being an Erasmus graduate doesn't guarantee you a great job with a lot of money and a great appreciation from others.

Cons:

Education systems of Spain and Portugal

Pros:

- The teachers can go with you for a cup of coffee;
- Free excursions organized especially for Erasmus students;
- Erasmus parties.

Pros:

Cons:

- 4 days for one big subject;
- Poor English of some of the teachers – Spain;
- Absence of safety gloves in the laboratory - Spain;
- Unfriendly environment for foreigners – science in Portugal;
- Endless and senseless corrections of your thesis;
- Absolute failure to meet the deadlines – by teachers;
- You will have to wait for your diploma for years;
- Old computers and equipment – science in Portugal;
- You have to live in the Institute to reach any success - science in Portugal.

Cons:

I sincerely wish you all

Good Luck!
