

THE ROLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS IN THE REBUILDING OF UKRAINE

1. Education. Ensuring quality education and training of qualified specialists in various fields of knowledge necessary for the development of the economy and society, which also affects

4. Innovations. To create favorable conditions for the development of startups and small businesses by providing consultations, access to technological resources, and involvement of students in innovative

2. Science. Conducting research in various fields of science, technology and humanities. Creation and development of innovative technologies that will be used in industry, agriculture and other sectors of the economy. The commercialization of scientific developments through the transfer of tech-

5. The support of region. The promotion of the development of the region in the way of designing and implementation of social and cultural projects in the frame of the EU program, cooperation with local communities and au-

7. Social development. Formation of civil society and political culture by providing students with the opportunity to study and discuss social issues, understand political processes and participate in public life. Promotion of the development of critical thinking, education and active participation of citi-

3. Scientific diplomacy. To take the benefit of the problem - to take advantage of the stay of leading Ukrainian scientists in the EU, the USA, Canada as representatives of scientific diplomacy. Consider them as scientific liaison officers between foreign scientists and Ukrainian, but most importantly the search for close innovative technologies in order to create

6. Integration with the EU. The universities are actively promoting the implementation of European standards of education, research and management, which contributes to Ukraine's integration into the European educational area. Training of experts in master's programmes to conduct negotia-

