

ERASMUS + “International Students Adaptation and Integration/ INTERADIS”

- Upgrading language skills for academic staff
 - Courses for intercultural communication for staff and students
 - Adaptation of infrastructure
- Adaptation of training programs for international students

Creation of best environment for international students

- Piloting of Adaptation Course for international students
(3 ECTS)
- Creation of Co-working zones
- Cultural and social activities for international and national students for better adaptation
- Creation of Student Guide

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Kharkiv Karazin National University
Projects during martial law 2 examples

EURIDICE at Karazin University in 2024

- a series of open lectures by experts on the physical manifestation of the digital society, cyber attacks and protection, legal regulation of cyber security, etc. More about lectures on the project page

- training sessions and workshops developed and delivered by consortium members
- development of the common competence framework for the creation of self-standing modules that will be recognized by all partners

in 2024:

- 2 pilot modules "Cybersecurity Law & Society" (5 ECTS) and "Citizenship and Democratic Governance of Digital Technology" for master's and postgraduate students of Karazin University.

The best students will receive a scholarship under the project.

- within the framework of the courses "Communication Strategies in the Digital Age", "Leadership and Partnership in the Digital Society" (education programme "Digital Society"), "Information Consulting" (education programme "Media Communications and public relations") there will be joint social projects on solving current issues of the development of the digital society;

in 2025:

- training of university teachers in working with the LOUIS Framework and DigComp Framework to design professional development courses for academic staff, representatives of state authorities and business

Read more on the project page and on Facebook

In collaboration with our partners, we are committed to equipping a diverse group of trainers with cutting-edge digital skills.